Senior Privilege applications for Late Arrival/Early Release are available in the main office. Students who have already submitted an application should check with Mrs. Loke to see if they have been approved. Seniors with Late Arrival MUST sign in at the attendance office upon arrival so that they are not marked absent! Early Release students must leave campus promptly following their last class of the day.

Administration

Attention Students: The Library opens to Study Hall students beginning today, September 12. Those students who are returning to the HS should bring their ID from last year for admission to the library. Freshmen may use their grade 8 ID or check in at the library's front desk. If you are new to MTHS, you may still come to the library. Simply check in at the library's front desk and let us know that you are new to the district. Any questions please see the library.

Library

Students: This is a reminder that any books checked out of the library for the summer are due back to the library by Friday, September 16, 2016. See the library if you have any questions.
